OCEANA HIGH SCHOOL

Oceana, West Virginia

Hail, Oceana!
We dedicate to you
Hearts that you'll find
Ever loyal and true.
Firm and undaunted,
Always we'll be—
Hail, Oceana,
We salute to thee!
True to the school we love,
We'll always be.

HIGHLIGHTS

Hail, Oceana!

Queen Ellen Reigns at Homecoming

GREAT MOMENT arrives for pretty Ellen Walker. Escorted by Larry Cook, she goes forward for her coronation. Crown bearer is Kara Pruett.

Homecoming Is Highlight

Football, the annual parade, pep, and excitement were the ingredients which made a long to be remembered Homecoming.

A highlight of the exciting day's activities was the coronation of the Homecoming Queen during halftime ceremonies at the Oceana-Iaeger game.

Traditional Parade, Dance

IMPRESSIVE FIRE baton routine in the halftime homecoming show is led by head majorette Diane Mitchem.

QUEEN ELLEN and crown bearer Kara Pruett ride around field.

Add Festive Touches to Homecoming

COLOR GUARD sets a smart pace for the Indian Band. Leading the Homecoming Parade are Dennis Asbury, Billy Bailey, Ronnie Stevens, and Roy Lester.

SHARON WALLS sings "May Each Day" at Homecoming Dance in honor of queen.

GIRL SCOUTS admire the prize winning float entered in the parade by the Thespian Society. The live turkey won the club third prize.

Homecoming Attendants

HAPPINESS is being attendant to the homecoming queen. Mary Perry and Cathy Cook make pre-coronation tour of the football field.

HOMECOMING is the greatest. That's the opinion of lovely Kaye Blackburn and Vickie Whitt.

SECOND Runner-up Gwen Jones and escort Bill Privett.

THIRD Runner-up Debbie Scott and escort Barry Farley.

FIRST Runner-up Paula Hall and escort Clifton Walls.

Mack Sweetheart

NANCY SHANNON, 1967 Sweetheart, crowned Becky during coronation ceremonies at the annual FHA Spring Formal held in the Oceana Grade gym.

SWEETHEART Becky seems to be laughing at her escort as he makes a wish in Ye Old Wishing Well.

A BOUQUET of pink roses, a traditional red cape, a crown, and gold locket were the rewards for many weeks of hard work by Sweetheart Becky Mack. Her escort was Paul Reed.

Formal Honors Sweetheart

"Forever and Forever" was the theme for the FHA Spring Formal. Pink hearts and silver musical notes provided a decorative background for the coronation of the 1968 FHA Sweetheart, Becky Mack of the freshman class.

In her court were Paula Hall, Gwen Jones, Susie Shields, and Debbie Scott.

The queen and court were presented by Principal Vernon Short and Becky was crowned by Nancy Shannon, 1967 Sweetheart.

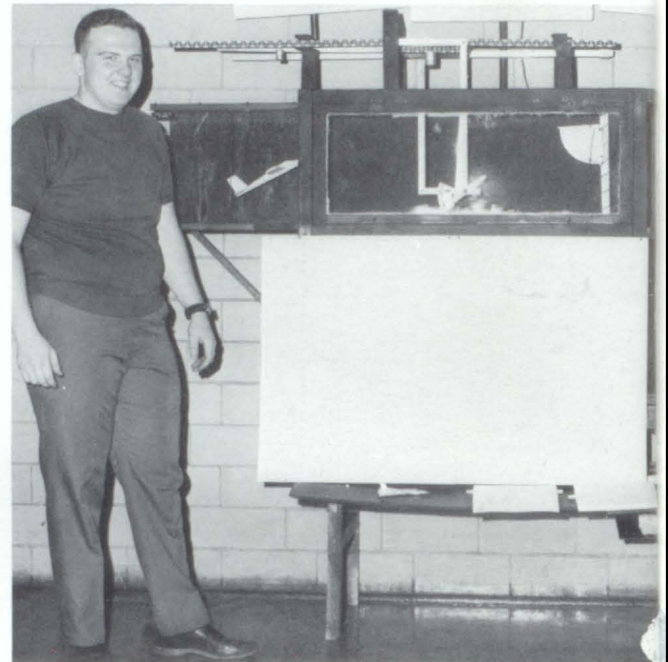

FHA members and their guests danced to the music of the Kentucky Gentlemen of Princeton.

Hard Work Results In Honors, Awards

WITH A collection of old documents dating back to 1857, hand carved miniature farm tools, and other items, Greg Wright won first honors in West Virginia history at the Social Science Fair. Here he tries a celluloid collar from his collection on David Harless, sophomore.

WITH A SERIES of maps showing the development of the United States, junior Helen Conley won first place in American History at the Social Science Fair in Pineville.

ARMY AND AIR FORCE awards at the Regional Science Fair went to Larry Canterbury for his wind tunnel. He spent ten months in preparing his exhibit which took first place in the Wyoming County Science Fair.

SOPHOMORES Jimmy Thompson and Larry Belcher entered model of the satellite "Echo I" in the Regional Fair after placing third at the County Fair.

OCEANA HIGH WINNERS in the County Forensic Meet were Steve Browning, Brenda Lewis, Mike Cook, Mr. Paul Blankenship, sponsor; Linda Massey, and Joan Perry.

SCHOOL LEADERS Sandy Nutter and David Toler were chosen to enter the Elks Leadership Contest. David won second honors in the boys' division as most valuable student.

FIRST OCEANA contestants in the State Forensic Meet were Brenda Lewis and Steve Browning. Steve placed fourth in radio announcing.

BONING UP in the library are members of the Quiz Bowl Team chosen to represent the school. Members are Betty Clark, Gary Baldwin, Judy Jones, David Toler, David Basconi, and Larry Canterbury.

MISS CONGENIALITY was the title won by Kaye Blackburn in the Wyoming County Miss American Scholarship Pageant. Kaye received her trophy from Mr. Gene Harvey, Pineville Jaycee. With them is Jackie Oblinger, WCHS television personality.

CRISCO AWARD is presented to Nancy Shannon by Mrs. Virginia Smith, home economics teacher.

GOOD NEWS is shared by Gary Johnson and David Basconi, who learned that they are delegate and alternate to Mountaineer Boys' State.

Delegates Chosen

"I'D RATHER eat than cook, says Linda Massey, who was named "Homemaker of Tomorrow."

GIRLS' STATE delegates and alternates chosen from the junior class are Jo Ann Stewart, Judy Jones, Palma Basconi, and Dorothy Branham.

Memories of 'Tahitian Holiday' Linger

CAMERAS AND flash bulbs were every where as prom goers try to capture the magic of "Tahitian Holiday". James Caudill snaps a picture and classmate Donald Gibson watches the dancers.

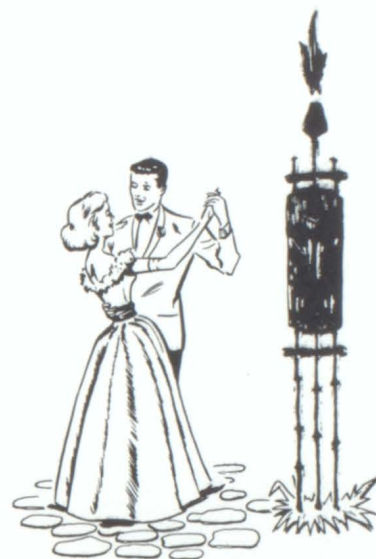

DON'T LET THAT music go to waste! Wanda Hamilton and Chuck Blankenship dance to the music of the Kentucky Gentlemen.

GIRL WATCHING? Could there be a better place for spotting a pretty girl than the junior-senior prom? Watchers are Donald Gibson, Larry Sullivan, Freddy Lambert and most likely Mr. Randall Morgan.

REFRESHMENT HUT was a popular place. Could it have been because of the pretty sophomore natives who served? Attired in their colorful mumus are Gwen Frazier, Andrea Wilson, Patricia Stewart, and Glenna Sizemore.

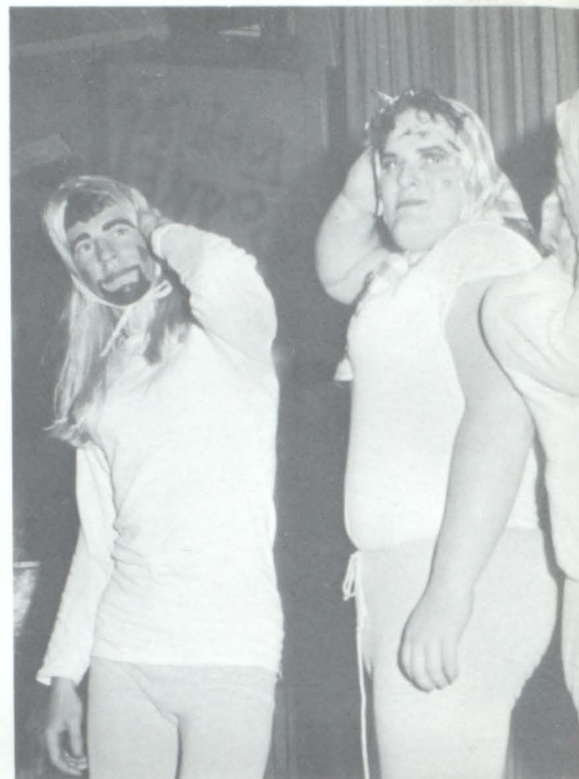

INTERMISSION FINDS prom goers chatting and exchanging autographs.

PROM COUPLES found waiting for photographer are Virginia Hearn and Chuck Asbury, Debby Eastridge and Jimmy Sizemore, Karen Rollins and Tom Stewart.

MOVING THE show along at a lively pace were David Harless and Steve Browning, who were masters of ceremonies. David was also a soloist.

'Laugh Out' Features

TOP TALENT prize was won by freshman singer, Sharon Walls.

HELLO, JOSEPHINE! This novelty skit won third prize for seniors Jackie Steele and Julie Wood.

CHARLOTTE BROWN was soloist.

CORONATION OVER, Queen Janet and escort J. R. White join the dancers. Following are attendant Mary Perry and Doug Davis.

QUEEN JANET WALLS reigns at the annual junior-senior prom. With the queen are pretty little crown bearer Amy Jill Greer and escort Mike Woods.

Queen Janet Walls

Petite and pretty Janet Walls was crowned queen at the 1968 junior-senior prom. She was chosen by vote of juniors and seniors.

Wearing a white gown accented with green, the queen was crowned by junior class president Jo Ann Stewart, who presented her with a pearl necklace, a gift from the junior class.

Beth Harris, a member of the junior class, sang "More" for the queen. The queen and members of her court were introduced by Principal Vernon Short.

Decorations carried out the theme "Tahitian Holiday," with a straw hut as the refreshment stand, a colorful Tiki, palm trees, and a huge wall mural of the sea. Music was provided by the Kentucky Gentlemen.

ORGANIZATIONS

True to the school we love,
We'll always be.

Council Leaves Record of Achievement

This year was the busiest yet for the student council!

With Mr. B. L. Morgan as adviser, the council sponsored Homecoming weekend, special assemblies and class elections, and served as ushers at home basketball games.

During the Christmas season, the council sponsored a toy dance, and placed a "toy box" in the school to collect toys for needy children of the area. The council raised $300 for clothing and food to distribute to the needy.

JUST TOO EARLY! Getting ready to leave for Jackson's Mill at 6 a.m. for the State Student Council Convention was just a little too early for Dickie Cook, Sandy Nutter, Mr. Doyle Lupardus and Gary Baldwin.

Early in the year, Sandy Nutter, Gary Baldwin, and Dickie Cook traveled with Mr. Doyle Lupardus, math instructor, to Jackson's Mill for the State Student Council Convention. The delegates brought back many ideas for the school council, and Mr. Lupardus was elected to the State Advisory Board.

At the end of the year, the council held its first banquet.

SANDY NUTTER, Council president, and Larry Halsey, Glen Rogers High, prepare to give report at Christmas meeting of County Council held at Oceana High.

Classes Show Spirit In Election Campaign

SANDY NUTTER, president, and Melba Hurley distribute ballots in the school election held at the end of the year. Ready to vote are Danny Daniels and Jackie Whitten.

SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS! Mr. Doyle Lupardus helped council members collect, repair, and deliver toys for the needy children in the area.

AFTER A LIVELY campaign, class presidents for the '68-'69 school year talk over their victories. New leaders are Dewey Bailey, senior; Drema Stewart, junior; and George Kinser, sophomore.

Club Leaves Record Of Accomplishment

Projects of the Future Homemakers ranged from sponsoring a hairstyling demonstration to contributing for the fourth year to the Oceana FHA Loan Fund at Marshall University.

It was a busy year for the girls who worked to provide two water coolers for the school, to present programs of general interest to all students, and to serve the community.

Thirteen club members attended the regional meeting at Concord College. Dorothy Branham and Cheryl Short were delegates to the State FHA Convention.

The club donated film strips on South America to the county resource center.

Staff Greets Students With First Day Edition

Working diligently before school opened, veteran members of the paper staff produced a "First Day of School" edition.

In doing so, the '68 staff chalked up a first for itself since no other staff had ever attempted to produce a welcoming edition.

Co-Editors Janice Browning and Gary Baldwin, Debby Eastridge, feature editor, and Steve Browning, sports editor, worked for two weeks during vacation to publish the edition and sell advertising to finance the paper for the year.

The staff was host to the December meeting of the Raleigh-Wyoming Press Association and attended meetings of the group at various schools.

The year of printer's ink and toil ended with the senior edition, which was edited by Iris Pendry, a senior staff member.

WRITING HEADLINES and meeting deadlines kept Co-Editors Janice Browning and Gary Baldwin busy throughout the year.

Honor Rating in '68

CAN WE DO IT? Sportswriters for the cub edition find it a challenge to produce two pages of sports news. At work are Wilfred Bryant, Jimmy Belcher, Gregg Meeks, Mike Osborne, and Wallace Maynard. Gregg was editor.

Sigh , Sigh!

What's his name, anybody know? Hurry, let's get it done so we can leave. Oh, this carbon paper stuff is all over me! What do you mean they changed the headline size? What's Lydian Italic, anyway? Oh boy! More money! You mean we've only sold THAT many so far! What's wrong now? You lost your receipts! Oh, you just misplaced them. Hey, let's get patrons tomorrow--I have a test. Mr. Justice is here--smile pretty! Hey, my drape's falling off! What side's the tassel supposed to be on? Tell Sherry we need some more money. Why, bless your heart, the only full-page ad in the book! SIGH! IT'S FINISHED!

RESULT: A GREAT '68 YEARBOOK!!!

agers Bill Massey and Harold Trent, Ted Lively, T.C. Thompson, Tom Stewart, Dewey Bailey, Jim Sizemore, Bill Armachain, Jack Price, Doug Davis, Larry Harless, Manager Darrell Trent, and Head Coach John Beckelheimer. Only seven of the members graduate.

SENIORS CONTRIBUTING to Oceana's respectable 5-4-1 record were Mike Thacker and J. R. White at front and Rabon Hill, Danny Harvey, Dale Rollins and Doug Davis. Ted Lively was absent due to a collarbone injury received in the opening game.

Seniors Play Important Role

Under the guidance of Coach John Beckelheimer, the 1967 junior-dominated football team closed the season with a 5-4-1 record.

The 5-4-1 record for Coach Beckelheimer lifted his Oceana High record to an outstanding 38-19-3 showing since he took the reins as head coach in 1962.

Senior players were Mike Thacker, Ted Lively, Rabon Hill, Doug Davis, J. R. White, Dale Rollins and Danny Harvey.

Co-captain Thacker finished his third year on the squad, racking up 459 yards rushing on offense. On defense, he recorded 58 individual tackles.

Lively's second year on the team was brought to a halt in the opening game when he broke his collarbone. He was an offensive and defensive halfback.

Hill completed his third year on the team with 43 individual tackles despite a troublesome knee injury which hampered him.

Davis also finished his third year on the squad. He had an outstanding year, with 38 individual tackles.

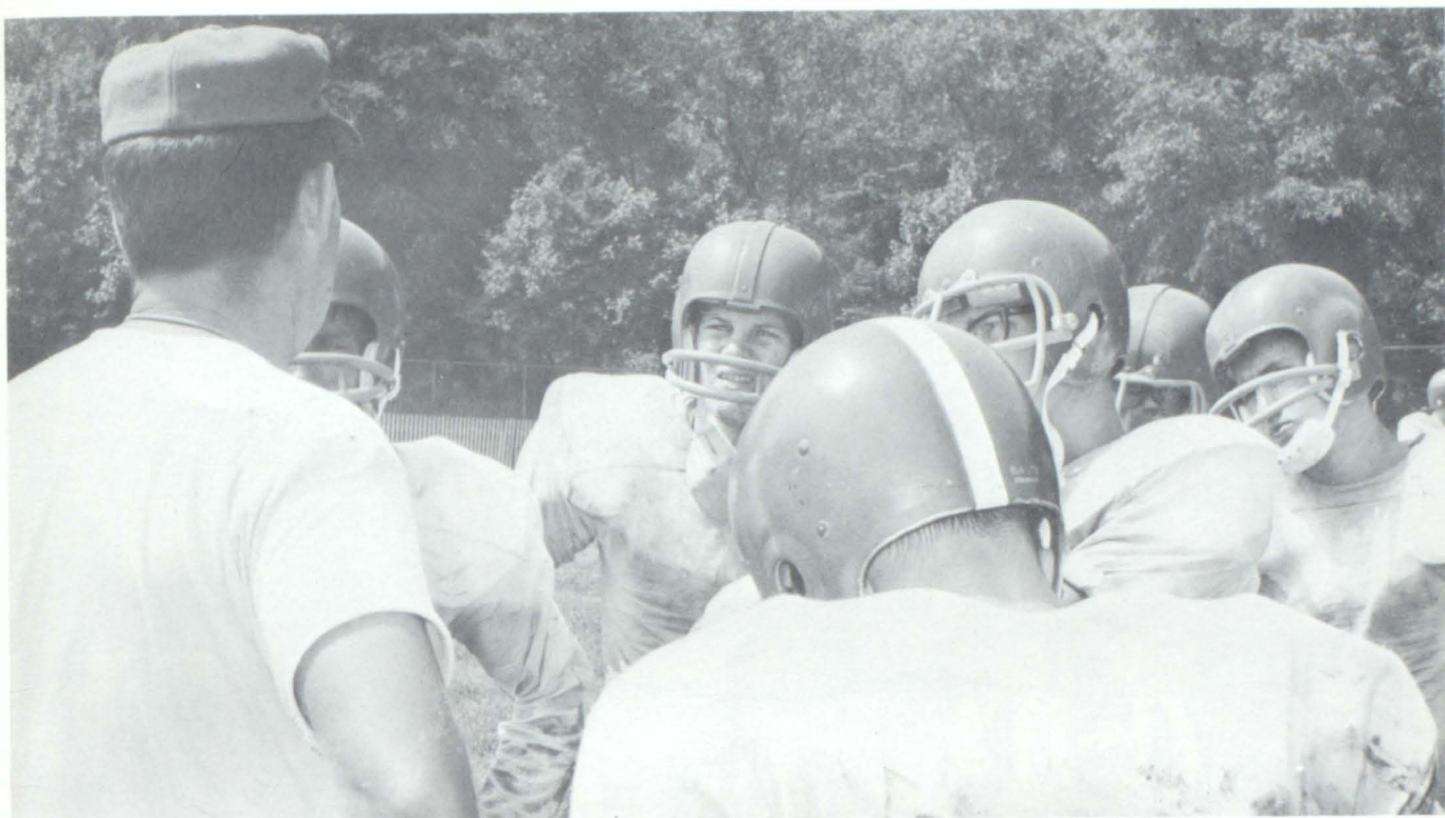

Co-captain White finished his third year on the team with 26 individual tackles.

Rollins finished his third year on the squad as a defensive tackle for Coach Beckelheimer.

Harvey racked up 8 individual tackles in limited action.

SCOREBOARD 5-4-1

"BOYS, THE 1967 campaign will be as good as the entire team wants it to be," says Coach John Beckelheimer in a pre-scrimmage discussion. Listening intently are Beecher Plumley, Rabon Hill, and Gary Moore. Plumley and Hill were returning lettermen.

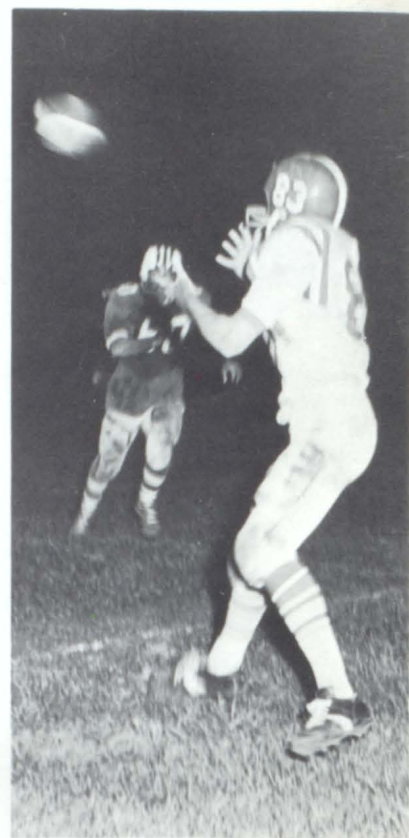

Football Takes Spirit, Determination

"IF WE COME to play, have the attitude to work hard, the desire to make sacrifices, the will to win and the pride that is necessary, our opponents will have to work hard to beat us," Coach John Beckelheimer tells the squad.

HOMECOMING means plenty of pep, spirit, and fans. YEA, INDIANS!

Rabon Hill, Indian offensive end, awaits oncoming ball after running a down and out pattern.

Football Team

Bill Armachain, fullback, stands ready for a score from a bomb thrown by quarterback Tim Stewart.

ALWAYS an exciting moment--Other Homecoming festivities are forgotten when the opening snap gets the game underway.

Swings into Action

TENSION RISES on the Indian bench as Oceana plays tug of war with Iaeger in the Homecoming tilt. Our turn will come?

FAMILIAR but always thrilling--the arrival of the OHS grid force. Dashing to the field are senior co-captains J. R. White and Mike Thacker along with sophomore quarterback Tim Stewart.

Five Make All-County

Five members of the football squad were named to the All-Wyoming County football team. Boys honored were guard Jack Price, fullback-end Bill Armachain, halfback-linebacker Mike Thacker, tackle Jim Sizemore, and center-guard Gary Moore.

Four of the five will return next year since only Thacker is a senior.

Armachain made several other honor clubs, including the All-Area, All-Coalfield Conference team, and third team All-State.

Armachain made football history when he broke two OHS grid records. He caught a 94-yard touchdown pass to break Larry Mathis's 1966 mark of 75 yards, and he broke a long-standing touchdown record of ten touchdowns in a season with eleven. The record was previously shared by Gary Bailey '63, Gene Reid '64, and Mathis and James Justice '66.

IT'S SOMETHING to smile about when a football player makes the All-County honor team. Smiling Indians are Jack Price, Bill Armachain, Mike Thacker, Jim Sizemore, and Gary Moore.

WHICH TEAM holds the record? One thing is sure. Coach John Beckelheimer has the answer on his football chart.

Coach Compiles Statistics

Coach John Beckelheimer has no problem with filling his leisure time. Each and every season the football mentor sees to it that all statistics for each game are recorded.

At the end of the season, Beckelheimer tallies these statistics, both individual and team, and usually comes up with some new records.

When a record is broken, he adds it to the all-time record chart. Here it will stay until it is broken by another team or another athlete.

Junior High Post Winning Season

PRETTY JUNIOR HIGH cheerleaders were Hazel Vance, Susan Dillon, Cindy Cook, head; Connie Steffey, and Jackie Davis. The girls won "Best Cheerleaders" trophy at the Invitational Junior High Tournament held at Mullens High.

Indians Acquire Experience

Oceana's hoop team ran into a rugged schedule in 1967-68, and ended with a 9-12 record.

The loss of senior scoring ace, Ted Lively, early in the season hurt the team considerably.

Despite their under-par record, the Indians gave such top rated clubs as Mullens and Princeton chill-raising scares.

Only Lively and clean-up men Paul Thomas and Ray Cook were hit with graduation, so the 1968-69 campaign should be a bright one.

Big Bill Armachain, Bill Durbin, Tom Stewart, Danny Daniels, Jack Cook, C. L. Walls, and Dickie Cook are returning seniors. Tim Stewart will head the list of oncoming juniors.

Sophomores Jim Hopkins, Tom Scott, Jackie Repass, and Stacy Keys could give the upperclassmen a race for a reservation on the roster.

COACH Paul Greer watches intently as Oceana battles away at an opponent.

IDEA! Coach Greer sees a mistake the team is making and has a cure for it.

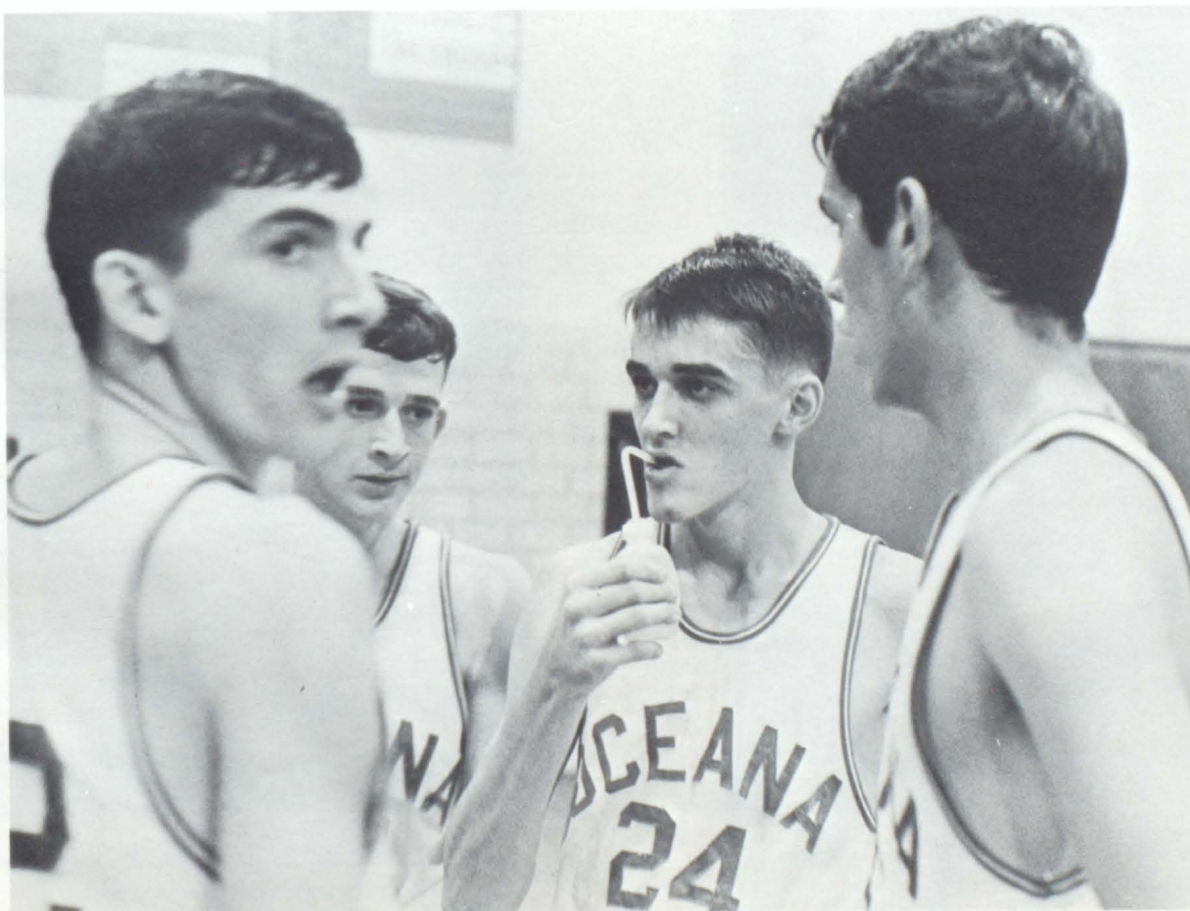

TIME OUT! Coach Greer discusses new strategy with members of the team.

WITH hope behind his new tactics, Coach Greer keeps a sharp watch on the game.

Strategy Was Important

Indians in Action

CHEER, CHEER, CHEER! Indian fans Jerry Vance, C. L. Walls, Mike Cook, and Jim Hopkins watch the Pineville game.

SENIOR CAPTAIN Ted Lively missed all but three of the Indian games as the result of a shoulder injury.

READY TO SPRING toward the bucket is pivot-man Bill Armachain, who led the Tribe in scoring.

AIDING THE defensive cause, Danny Daniels stabs the ball away from an opponent.

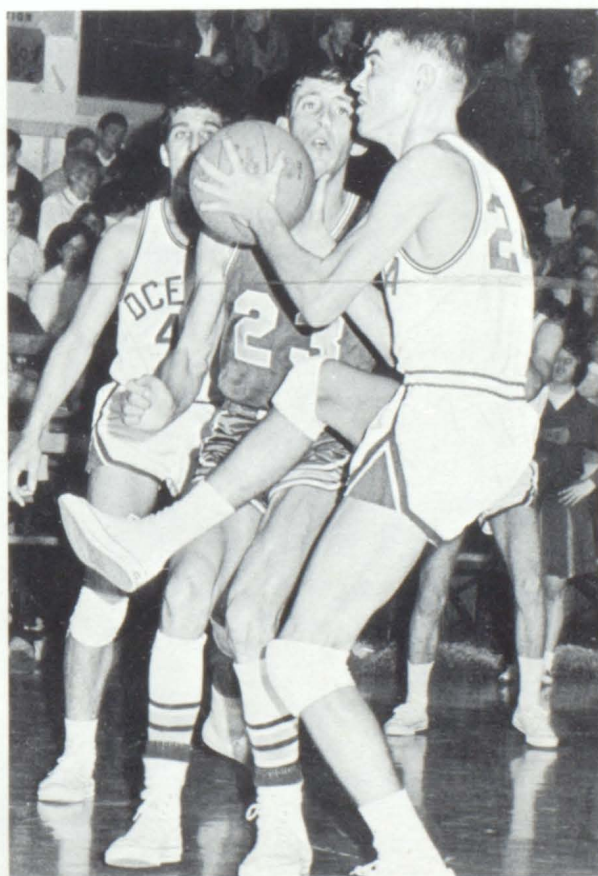

SOMETHING NEW in dribbling? Junior guard Dickie Cook retrieves a lost ball.

JACKIE COOK by-passes an anxious defender. He provided extra speed throughout the season.

FORWARD standout Bill Durbin cautiously dribbles the ball down court.

DETERMINED Tom Stewart goes for a bucket.

STATISTICIANS throughout the campaign were Doran Brown and Dewey Bailey.

Two Lettermen to Graduate

GRADUATING LETTERMAN Paul Thomas will be missed by the Indian varsity cage team this season.

CAPTAIN TED LIVELY averaged 23 points and held down the guard spot. Because of injury, he played in only three games.

SUCCESS FOR THE freshman basketball team this past season was due chiefly to the work of these three gentlemen; Co-Captain Jim Hopkins, Coach Gene Gilliland, and Co-Captain Jackie Repass.

Cíndermen Leave Deep Tracks in 1968

Indian trackmen wrapped up the most successful season ever posted at Oceana High.

A look at the record shows the Indians coasting into four first place wins. These outstanding performances came in the Coalfield Conference Meet, the Oceana Invitational, Wyoming County Meet, and a triangular meet with Madison and Buffalo-Putnam.

In the Coalfield Meet the Indians tallied 112 points and took ten first places to win the crown for the second consecutive year. In the Coalfield, Invitational, and County Meets the Indians won by margins of more than 50 points over each of the second-place winners.

In the Beckley Jaycee Relays the Indians won second place honors, and in the Gazette Relays at Charleston the Indians took sixth place.

Track history was made this year when Oceana grabbed on to a fifth place tie in the State Meet, and Tom Stewart won first place honors in the mile. This is the first year Oceana trackmen have placed in the State Meet.

Throughout the season the cindermen broke school records, leaving only records in the high jump, discus, and mile unbroken at the end of the season.

Seniors Ted Lively and Russell Waytovich are the only cindermen who graduate this year. While loss of these two handymen will be felt, prospects for the 1969 season are bright.

COACH JOHN BECKELHEIMER is presented the second place trophy at the Jaycee Relays at Beckley.

Miler Tom Stewart Wins State Honors

Capturing first place in the mile, Tom Stewart is the first Indian trackster ever to win an individual event at the State Track Meet.

Stewart ran the mile in 4:32.2 to win first place Class AA honors.

Stewart won the state event after taking first place in the Coalfield Conference, the Oceana Invitational, Wyoming County, the Jaycee Relays, the Gazette Relays, the Madison Meet, and the Regional Meet. He also won first honors in the 880 at the Regional Meet.

In the half-mile Bill Armachain finished third with 2:03.1.

Both Stewart and Armachain ran on the 2-mile relay team which captured fourth place. Other members of the team were Tim Stewart and Jack Cook.

Seniors Ted Lively and Russell Waytovich wound up their athletic careers at Oceana High as they ran on the half-mile relay team with Dick Cook and Beecher Plumley to take second place with 1:34.5.

HISTORY WAS made in 1968 by Tom Stewart, junior miler, who took first place in the state AA track meet.

SENIORS Russell Waytovich and Ted Lively, who were members of the 880 relay team which won second place honors at the State Meet, display trophies won by the track team at the Coalfield Conference, Oceana Invitational, Jaycee Relays, and Wyoming County Track meets.

STATE TRACK Meet winners Tim Stewart, Jack Cook, Beecher Plumley, Bill Armachain, Dickie Cook, and Tom Stewart turned on speed to win their gold medals.

DICKIE COOK cops first place in the Coalfield Conference Meet.

BILL ARMACHAIN sets new 880-yard dash record in Jaycee Relays at Beckley.

SOPHOMORE standout Tim Stewart, captures first place in the 440-yard dash in the Coalfield Meet.

Tracksters Set New Records

HIGH JUMPER Donnie Stafford was second in the Invitational.

DAVID GUNTER breaks the school broad jump record in the Invitational meet at Oceana. The new record is 19 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

SOARING OVER the hurdles are Raymond Walker and his Pineville opponent in the County Meet. Walker won.

Junior High Wins County Track Crown

HIGH, HIGH in the sky, Mike Bowles captures first place in the Invitational.

10 - 3 Homeroom Wins Basketball Tourney

Indian Mascot New Addition

LET'S GIVE a big how how for the Indians! Denise Martin, the first Indian mascot, added lots of pep to the basketball games. She was selected by the cheerleaders and appeared at all home ball games. Here she adds lots of spirit to the pep rally before the Pineville game.

PRETTY CHEERLEADERS add that extra zing to school pep. Joyce Neal, Ellen Walker, Kaye Blackburn, Karen Rollins, and Kathy Harper cheered the Indians on. Kaye and Ellen were senior members of the squad. Kaye was captain.

Cheerleaders Win County Honors

WHAT MAKES a top cheerleading squad? Joyce, Ellen, Kaye, Karen, and Kathy demonstrate the winning combination of grace and beauty.

Chosen as "Best Cheerleaders" at the Wyoming County AA basketball tournament, the 1968 squad added pep and color to all athletic contests of the year.

Developing new yells and techniques, attending cheerleading clinics, and putting in long hours of practice were all part of the year's work for the squad. In victory or in defeat they backed the team and kept Indian spirit high.

Giving assistance to many worthwhile projects, the cheerleaders aided not only the athletic department, but the entire school.

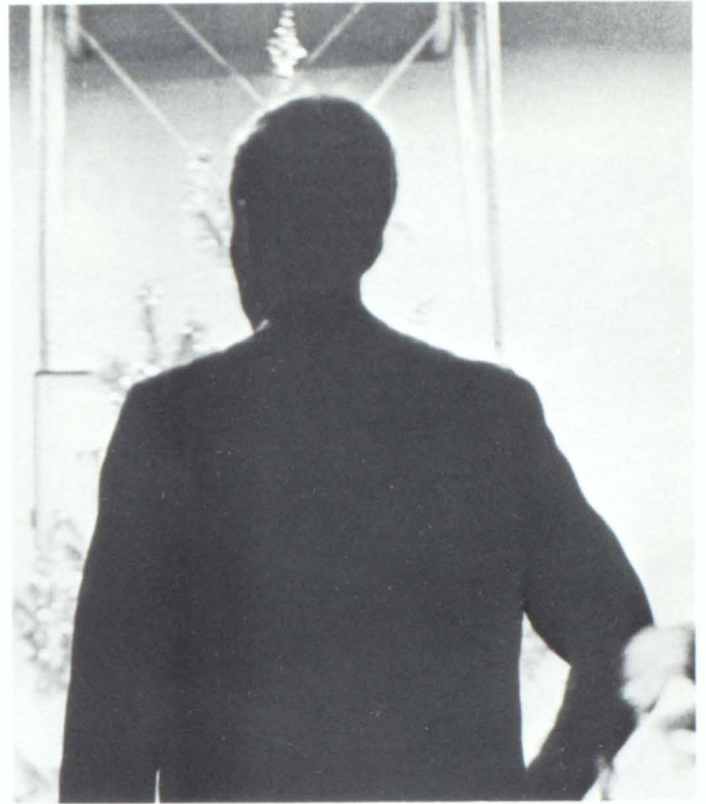

Seniors Kaye and Ellen will graduate from the squad. Karen, Joyce, and Kathy will be on hand to lead cheers for the Indian team next year.

CLASS OF 1968 hears the chorus sing "Jesus Walks That Lonesome Valley" during baccalaureate.

Improved for Tomorrow'

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY members Larry Sullivan, Melissa Snider, Susan Gilliland, and Betty Clark listen intently as Dr. Ross Culpepper, retired Methodist minister, delivers his message to the class.

AS BACCALAUREATE services come to an end, serious seniors file out calmly.

DR. ROSS CULPEPPER, retired Methodist minister from Charleston, was principal speaker at baccalaureate services. His timely topic was "It's Your Life, Don't Foul It Up."

Speeches Center on the Graduate,

MR. THOMAS GOHEEN, chorus director, leads the Oceana High School Chorus in a response during baccalaureate.

VALEDICTORIAN David Toler spoke on "Forces of Change" at graduation.

LINDA MASSEY, honorarian, talked on "You and the Changing World."

SALUTATORIAN Larry Canterbury spoke on "Technology and the Future."

His Life, and the Changing World

WHAT'S commencement without Fred Shannon as organist? Year after year he returns to assist the seniors. Rev. Herman Hayes, Oceana Methodist minister, gave the invocation and benediction.

MEMORIES OF last year's commencement may account for the thoughtful look of Ginny Cook '67, who returned to accompany the OHS Chorus.

'Halls of Ivy' Echoes

MIKE TOLER and Mary Perry keep in step together to "Pomp and Circumstance."

GARRY MOORE snuffs out the candles after commencement.

IT'S A PROUD TIME for parents and friends as they file in for commencement exercises. Members of the National Honor Society served as ushers and handed out programs during graduation.

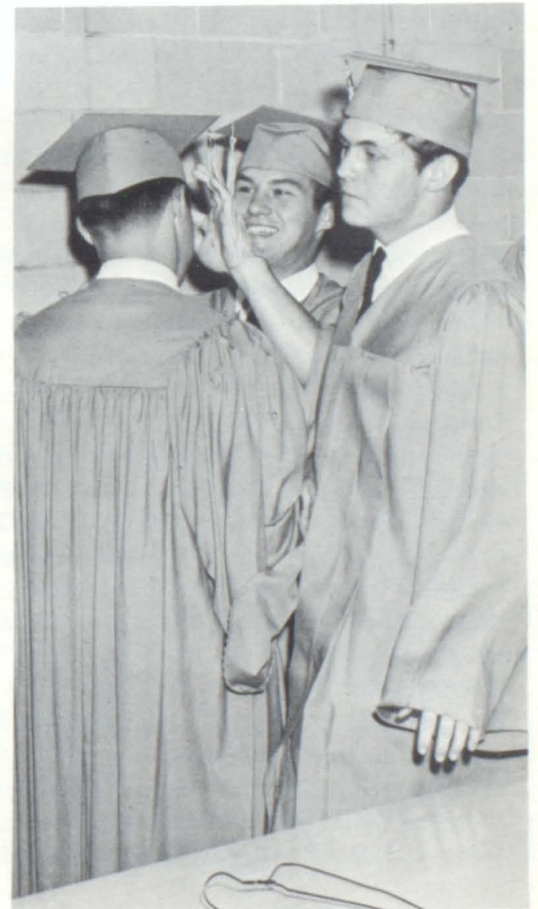

HONOR GUARDS Gary Baldwin and Jo Ann Stewart lead the graduates out following commencement.

"LET'S GET THIS thing right," says Larry Baldwin to Bill Akers as they straighten Paul Thomas' tassel before lining up.

Seniors' Sadness

LOOK AT ME! Deanna Lester, David Toler, and Larry Canterbury get their picture taken by an admirer before they begin their diploma march.

Build a Better Mousetrap

... and the world will make a beaten path to your door.

It happens all the time in our country. People with imagination and ambition can expect to be rewarded. Each of us has the opportunity to fulfill our dreams ... to get ahead by building a better mousetrap.

In America profit and honor are rewards to those who make significant contributions to our way of life. This is because we believe in Free Enterprise, the economic system that has given us the highest standard of living in the world today.
